Insurance Commissioner Scott Kipper Praises Our Members

Newly appointed, Nevada Insurance Commissioner, Scott Kipper spoke to about 100 attendees at the NABIP-NN monthly membership luncheon this month.

In his remarks, Kipper recalled the first time that he served as the state's Insurance Commissioner when the state exchange had just begun.

"Brokers were a critical element of the exchange's early success and we continue to count on members, like those of the Northern Nevada chapter, who are here with us today."

Kipper, well known to the chapter's members as a long time resident of the Reno area, has worked in the insurance industry as a consultant and regulator in a number of different states including, most recently, the Washington state Department of Insurance.
